Foreword

Kevin Pirolo writes this about the E-book
“The Power of Collective Intention.”

After Remote Viewing thousands of hours, my conscious awareness of the Collective (aka the Matrix) has become a familiar and comfortable place. When Technical Remote Viewing, one becomes intimately aware of how very significant and powerful intention can be in influencing the Collective Conscious.

The Power of Collective Intention is an excellent introduction to the principles of how individual human intention is recorded in the Matrix and thus ends up actually changing the composition of the Collective Conscious.

The Power of Collective Intention introduces an easy and free way for each of us to contribute to the betterment of our Planet. I wholeheartedly recommend reading this E-book and participating in Project 1 World! Your personal benefit, and the Global benefit will be rewarding indeed!

Introduction

“It is not good enough for things to be planned - they still have to be done; for the intention to become a reality, energy has to be launched into operation.” – Walt Kelly

There are many wonderful collective intention projects around the world organizing for the purpose of shining light on certain areas that scream for rapid transformation.

Usually, the normal way these projects are orchestrated are by building a network of people and having everyone promote one certain date and time when everyone in the group is supposed to focus their intention on whatever the purpose the project is for.

It is a known fact that collective intention can influence the physical external world. The effects from these collective intention projects rely on each individual’s ability to focus their intention by whatever means they have at their disposal.

Most people are not trained in advanced meditation techniques. Most people do not have a firm understanding of the physics behind consciousness itself and its interaction with the seen and unseen. Most people are unaware that there may be a very powerful tool at their disposal, which doesn't cost a penny, and can be used to massively amplify their own intention into the matrix in order to help spread the light on certain issues that are of concern to every human being on the planet.

In this book, The Power of Collective Intention, you will learn about some fundamentals in regard to collective intention in general. You will also learn how to instantly amplify your consciousness in such a profound way that your intention will be broadcast into the collective as less than 1% of the human population are able to do. You will learn the value of time compression and what it is and how to make it happen virtually automatically for you, even if you don't understand it. You will also learn of a powerful tool that you can use for free that will make all the above, and more, a reality for you today!

Also, please do your part in spreading the light by giving this book away to as many people as possible as fast as you can. Mankind has limited time to turn things around and I know that just by having this book in your hands, it shows you are someone who truly cares about others.

Global Consciousness

“A human being is part of the whole called by us universe, a part limited in time and space. We experience ourselves, our thoughts and feelings as something separate from the rest. A kind of optical delusion of consciousness.” – Albert Einstein

Recognize the fact that you are a part of the whole. There is a strong tendency for people to see themselves as individuals but in reality, there is one consciousness and each of us is a small piece of it.

Since thoughts are things, it matters what we think. Each thought we have has an effect on the entire collective mind.

Princeton Engineering Anomalies Research¹ (PEAR) has proven over the last several decades that not only does consciousness affect the external physical reality but also that the global consciousness of mankind appears to know when things are going to happen before something actually happens. This anticipation influences the physical world.

It has been known for quite some time that random event generators can be influenced by intention. A random event generator is a small electronic device that is designed to randomly produce binary data of a 0 or 1. (0 is off and 1 is on.) Since there are two options, and if the device is supposed to truly output random data, the output is supposed to be half 0's and half 1's, especially over a longer period of time. If you add all the results and figure the average time that 0's or 1's were output, they would be about the same.

If for example, 0's came out 50 times in a row, this would be a rare occurrence as it is not very probable. So what makes these random event generators output some wacky result instead of following the laws of probability?

Imagine that 0's are heads and 1's are tails. If you flipped a coin a thousand times, heads and tails would turn up close to an equal amount of times since there is a 50/50 chance of being either one. Imagine focusing intently on only heads turning up.

Do you realize that by doing that you are affecting the outcome? Do you realize that there will be more heads popping up than tails? You may think that you are subconsciously causing yourself to flip the coin just right to get heads and that is probably an accurate deduction.

But, what if you are focusing on an electronic device that you aren't even touching? What if this device was a thousand miles away? What if you focused on the device outputting 0's way more than 1's? Do you realize that the device will actually start to output more 0's than 1's?

This happens because your conscious intent is somehow connecting to this device though some medium that is able to transmit the information to the device. There is an entire science behind this medium called the aether, which you can learn about in my book The Quantum Key².

There are these random event generators hooked up all over the world and all the data is brought together for analysis. This is called the Global Consciousness Project³. If this influencing ability can happen at the small level then surely there must be some way to have the collective intention of all of mankind influence a lot of these machines. This is exactly what has been found to happen.

Right before any big event happens that has a strong emotional impact on mankind such as the 9/11 event or a big tsunami, the collective data on all these generators go crazy and start to strongly deviate away from what is mathematically expected. It is not a slight deviation but apparently deviating so much it is moving “off the charts.” It happens over and over and is not a coincidence. Mass consciousness influences these generators and therefore proving that mass consciousness not only has an effect on our physical world but apparently is aware of events before they happen.

³ <http://www.energeticforum.com/energetic-science-ministries/599-global-consciousness-project.html>

So, if it is known that the mind can influence a physical device, is it possible for some kind of technology to help amplify the mind? The answer is yes and you will learn about it very soon.

POWERFUL KEY #1: It is possible for your thoughts to influence the physical external world around you, and it is also possible to have a part of the physical world amplify your thoughts into the collective.

It Only Takes A Few

“Never doubt that a small group of committed people can change the world – indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.” – Margaret Mead

It is the goal of many groups to have as many people as possible to concentrate on certain intentions. Perhaps fewer people doing something more powerful than usual will be more effective than masses of people who aren’t.

One example of a few people causing a more powerful effect than many is in the famous demonstrations where groups of people practicing Transcendental Meditation in certain cities brought down crime. It is known as the Maharishi Effect⁴, which is named after the founder Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. I am not personally involved with TM nor am I promoting TM. I simply recognize the reality of the effects of coherent intention by groups of people.

Specifically, Maharishi Yogi predicted that 1% of a population practicing TM could positively affect the entire population. That is only 1 out of a hundred people, who are considered to be leveraging a little in a powerful way.

Now, 1% of the world population of 6.6 billion people (6,600,000,000) is 66 million people (66,000,000). In my personal county, for example, there are about 400,000 people. 1% of that is only 4,000 people. That is still a fair amount of people to organize into a group meditation or other collective intention experiment. 66 million people surely would be quite a project to organize. Is there an easier way?

Utilizing more advanced methods of the TM meditations, it was predicted that the square root of 1% would have beneficial effects.

1% of my county of 400,000 people is 4,000 and the square root of 4,000 people is 63.24 or to round up 64 people. 64 people are a lot easier to organize into a coherent group than 4,000!

1% of the global population is 66 million but the square root of that is only 8124.04 or to round up 8125 people. 8125 people are a lot easier to organize into a collective intention project that has the potential to positively influence the consciousness of the entire planet.

It is very common sense to deduce the fact that anyone utilizing more potential will obviously have greater results. This is how fewer people can have a greater effect than many.

Most people choose a lifestyle where an avid pursuit of meditation and other techniques to boost their own human potential is not feasible.

But, what if there is something that YOU can do in only three-minutes a week, which will massively boost the amount of potential YOUR subconscious mind is using to send intention into the collective?

POWERFUL KEY #2: To have the power of your individual intention do the work of many people, you must simply utilize more of your potential. There is a tool for you to use for free. It isn't intended for millions of people but perhaps YOU are one of 8125 people who want to be one of the advanced intenders?

Time Compressed Energy

“The gift of mental power comes from God, Divine Being, and if we concentrate our minds on that truth, we become in tune with this great power.” – Nikola Tesla

If you expended 1 part energy per day for 10 days straight, would that be the same as expending 10 parts energy in one single day? The answer is absolutely not!

Imagine this: Take a hammer and lightly tap it on a window 100 times -- so lightly that it will not break the window. Nothing really happens. Now hit the window with the hammer 1 time with all the energy that was expended in the 100 other times. You will shatter it to pieces.

Bruce Lee knew this well and is famous for his 1-inch punch. He could punch someone by having his fist starting 1-inch away and the person would fly across the room and get knocked down on their butt. How? He is using time-compressed energy. He had a lot of potential just sitting there and then suddenly releases it into a very small period of time.

What if you took water and let it drip on a rock little by little over a long period of time? Eventually, you may start to see some wear on the rock but it will take years! Now take the same amount of water, put it under pressure and send it out a small nozzle at high speed. You will cut the rock in half like a laser.

This all comes down to taking advantage of time energy itself!

What about *time-compressed energy*⁵ as it applies to intention?

If you applied the concepts of the Law of Attraction⁶ (LOA) for manifesting something in your life and expended 1 part of mental energy per day on it for 30 days, that is a total of 30 parts energy spread over time.

If you expended 10 parts energy per day for 3 days, that is also 30 parts energy spread over a shorter time.

What is the difference? The difference is that you are compressing the same amount of work into a smaller period of time and you will get results more powerfully in a shorter period of time.

If you “tried” applying LOA to something in your life a little here and there over an entire year, you may never see results. However, if you were to become quite obsessed about your desire and wholeheartedly applied LOA non-stop on a daily basis giving it your all for a few weeks or months, you will get powerful results.

⁵ <http://www.energeticforum.com/paths/415-how-does-paths-works.html#post1894>

⁶ <http://www.energeticforum.com/personal-development/868-secret-law-attraction.html#post6505>

The tendency of nature is equalize your efforts through entropy.

If you exerted 1 part of energy here and there, which is low energy work with a lot of space in between, it is so few and far between that by the time your next effort is made, much of the intention power you exerted before is already dissipated. Therefore, you're almost starting from scratch each time and your efforts are in vain.

If you exerted 10 parts of energy daily with not much time between, nature cannot dissipate your efforts as quickly so by the time you exert intention power next time, there is already quite a bit left. That means you will reach a point where the probability of your desire to manifest is very high and you will see results quickly.

In many collective intention projects, the focus is for many people to concentrate on something all on the same day. That is great but after that day, you have the next whole one-year time period over which nature is dissipating all that input. So the next time the group intention is transmitted, it is almost starting from scratch.

If it were done daily or even weekly or even monthly, that would enhance the effectiveness greatly.

What if there was a way that you could spend only three minutes a week and have your subconscious transmit intention into the collective 7 days a week several hours a day automatically? There is!

POWERFUL KEY #3: For powerful results, you must send out intention into the collective with very high potential at rapid intervals.

Rapid Data Transfer

“Positive thoughts have a profound effect on behavior and genes, but only when they are in harmony with subconscious programming.” - Bruce Lipton

Rapid Data Transfer (RDT) is a revolutionary technology that allows your subconscious mind to access more innate potential than by any other method.

RDT does this by causing your subconscious mind to absorb massive amounts of information in a short period of time. By doing this, the brain must create new connections corresponding to this information. Each connection has electrical activity and the source of all electrical activity is actually coming from quantum potential in time and space itself. The more quantum potential your brain and mind pair uses, the more powerful are the effects of your thoughts that you send into the collective.

In addition to your mind simply soaking up this information, there is a hardware booster taking advantage of very advanced quantum science to send the intentions out to the collective. Your subconscious mind has access to this information in the collective and takes what it can to resend back into the collective. All of this is done without you having to actively spend time on it!

How does it work?

If you have seen the movie The Matrix, you probably remember when Neo had the skill set of kung fu sent directly to his mind without having to learn it. A computer was wired to his brain. Or, maybe you remember when Trinity was on top of a building and just by holding the phone to her ear; she received all the information on how to fly a helicopter. RDT is essentially the same concept.

To get results by using RDT, once a week all you have to do is sit down at your computer. Log into a website with your unique username and password. A short presentation representing the information that the collective project is about will be rapidly absorbed by your powerful subconscious mind in only 3 minutes on average, as well as you having the option to put on headphones to get the full experience.

After you are done with this 3-minute session, you can go about your business without having to spend time every day sending out intentions. Your subconscious mind, on your behalf, is powerfully sending intentions into the collective automatically a few hours a day 7 days a week! The amount of information your subconscious mind absorbs will take about 7 days on average for your brain to work on. Then you simply log back in for about 3 minutes and you're good for another week.

In addition to your subconscious mind absorbing this data from the theater presentation, there are hardware boosters that are sending the same information directly into the matrix. Your subconscious mind is constantly scanning the matrix and will pick up on this information being sent by the boosters. If the data is in alignment with your own intentions it will resonate with that information, will absorb some of it and will retransmit it back into the collective.

There is no other collective intention project, technology or method in the world that operates by these means with this much effectiveness.

POWERFUL KEY #4: RDT is a technology that you can use for free for humanitarian purposes and you can do it now!

Get Started Now

“How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.” – Anne Frank

Before I wrote this short book, the only people who were allowed to participate in the collective intention project called Project 1 World were people who were clients that paid for the RDT technology for other purposes such as memory improvement, boosting self-esteem, increasing muscle mass as well as dozens of other applications.

Because the balance of the planet is more precarious than ever, the stewards of the RDT technology have decided to let everyone use the Project 1 World collective intention program without being a paid client.

Follow these easy steps to get started now:

1. Click this link: http://www.paths-123.com/products_show.php?d=69
2. Then, just click on the BUY NOW button, follow the prompts and you will be ready to go in less than 5 minutes. THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO CHARGE AND YOU DO NOT HAVE TO ENTER A CREDIT CARD NUMBER.
3. You will need to pick a username and password when prompted which you will use each week to access the Project 1 World presentation.
4. When you finish signing up, you will be prompted to watch the presentation, which is all ready to go! If you want to return later, you just go onto <http://www.paths-123.com> and click the LOGIN menu button on the left side menu and log in.
5. When logged in, your theater presentation will download and you can watch it and put on some headphones. (note: only viewing has the same benefits, as well as only listening; so hearing impaired or visually impaired individuals can sign up for their own theater and contribute to this amazing collective project!)

Spread the Light

“Be the change that you want to see in the world.” – Mohandas Gandhi

It is powerful and noble for anyone to give of themselves in a selfless manner for the benefit of mankind. But it is so much more powerful to have others doing the same thing as well.

Please make a commitment to getting the word out about The Power of Collective Intention by emailing this free E-book to as many people as you can in the shortest period of time possible so you can take advantage of time-compressed energy. You may send this to anyone you want as long as the content is not changed.

Also, you can send people to the Project 1 World website at <http://www.project1world.org> and they can get on the mailing list, which will automatically send this E-book to them.

Also, to meet other Light Workers like yourself, we welcome you to Energetic Forum at <http://www.energeticforum.com>.

We welcome you to the team and I know that together we can truly cause powerful transformation change for the world.

With Love & Gratitude,
